Ashes to Ashes, Dust to Dust If Time Doesn't Get You . . . Cigarettes Must

It's the sizzling question of the day—to smoke or not to smoke. But like most burning issues, that the majority thinks a brand new one, the harm versus the pleasure of smoking has been the theme of scientists, poets and even songwriters of the world for a century or so.

Take the romantics—we like the quote from George du Maurier's Peter Ibbetson—"The wretcher one is, the more one smokes; and the more one smokes, the wretcher one gets, a vicious circle!"

Back in the 18th century William Cooper wrote, "Pernicious weed! whose scent the fair annoys."

Then along around the early 20th (our) century, poet Graham Lee Hemmings (I never heard of him before I began this bit of research) wrote, "Tobacco is a dirty weed; I like it—it satisfies no normal need, I like it—it's the worst darn stuff I've ever seen, I like it . . ."

And most of us have hummed that haunting ballad of the Roaring 20's—all about true love and something deep inside—undoubtedly the writer of "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" inhaled?

And so we got to wondering what Carmelites, at least a few that we could catch by phone in the few minutes left before going to press, thought of it all—We do not voice a Pine Cone policy or give you an overall city survey. We are not crusading, we're just plain curious—

We said "Do you smoke?"

They answered:

WILL SHAW, ARCHITECT—"I smoke about half a pack a day, for the pleasure of smoking . . . not necessarily to relieve the tension that we hear so much about. I don't feel that it is a problem. I may get around to stopping some day, but I won't be stampeded."

RHEA DIVELEY, THEATRICAL DIRECTOR—"I stopped smoking after 25 years of over a pack a day, six years ago, because the doctor told me if I kept on I'd have no heart action, and what's a girl without a heart—in action? During the first days of 'withdrawal' the fancy term for going off the weed, I really had a terrible time. But now I really enjoy the aroma of other people's cigarettes and I haven't the slightest desire to smoke myself. And I know I have a heart—in action. Further, I've finally gotten my brother, Harry, a three-pack-a-day man, to stop as of two weeks ago. He was definitely shaken by the surgeon-general's report. He's having a rugged time. Has chewed up three plastic cigarette holders, calls them his pacifiers; thinks now he may have swallowed a couple."

HUGH BAYLESS, CARMEL CITY CLERK—"As of Tuesday, Jan. 21, I don't smoke! I stopped just like that, snap! I started smoking before I was 20. I knew that I was smoking too much (about three packs a day) but I just couldn't taper off. The recent reports in every magazine and newspaper were really perfectly timed for me. For the past two weeks I've been chewing gum, eating mints and occasionally chewing on an unlit cigar. At first the smell of cigarette smoke made me 'hungry' for one. But not anymore. How do I feel? I've developed a horrible cough and I feel just terrible!"

KITTY BAYLESS, WOMEN'S SPECIALTY SHOP OWNER—"Yes, I smoke. I've been smoking for about 15 years. I should say I smoke about one and a half packs a day, but I rarely finish a cigarette. I smoke filters, but not because I think they're safer, but because I have always smoked the same brand and when they put out the filter 'model' I went along. I really don't think the reports, linking lung cancer to smoking are conclusive. A relative who never smoked in his life died of lung cancer. I never smoke before breakfast. But what enjoyment is there in a cup of tea, or a cocktail, or a social conversation without a cigarette? It just seems to go with! My husband, Hugh, has 'given up' and his disposition is poisonous. He has developed a hollow cough and worst of all, I know he feels superior, 'tho he claims to be the soul of tolerance, sweetness and light. Light a cigarette I say!"

CARMEL FIRE CHIEF ROBERT E. SMITH—"Yes I do smoke, but mostly cigars, maybe a couple of those a day. I carry cigarettes around and light one occasionally during a social conversation, but I rarely go beyond half a pack a day. At home in the evenings I get out my pipe. I don't worry so much about the health hazards of cigarettes as I do about the tragic fires caused by careless cigarette smokers who drop them onto rugs, inside upholstered chairs and most often fall asleep in bed with a lit cigarette. Careless smokers are the cause of our No. 1 fire hazard; if for no other reason, giving up smoking by absent minded people would indeed be wonderful."

Citizens Committee Annual Meet Tonight

Preceded by a social hour, from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m., the Carmel Citizens Committee will hold its fourth annual meeting this evening in Fellowship Hall of the Church of the Wayfarer with Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher, president, in the chair.

The new slate of officers and

After several weeks of printing our paper elsewhere, we are pleased to announce that once again we are printing the PINE CONE at our own plant.—Ed.

directors to be announced includes: Admiral Fisher, president; executive vice-president, Col. Arthur H. Black; treasurer, Col. Arthur H. Black; secretary, Mrs. Mary Vickrey. Directors: Chester Coulter, Miss Charlotte Townsend, Mrs. Dorothy Chapman, Leonard J. Fletcher and Rawlins I. Tles-ton.

The nominating committee for 1964 will be elected this evening.

The major part of the evening will be devoted to 'future prospects for Carmel and what the Carmel Citizens Committee should do about them.' Issues that will come under discussion are the Monterey Peninsula Area Plan; the purchase of the Sunset School property for $550,000 and its future use; the impending 15 cent increase in Carmel's tax rate (for capital outlay); the importance of annexing adjacent territory; the City election in April and the continuing struggle to keep Carmel always Carmel.

All Carmel citizens are urged to attend tonight's meeting and to bring friends and visitors who are interested in the preservation of Carmel's unique cultural, ethical and social standards; in the character of our streets, homes and buildings; in the unspoiled grandeur that has won Carmel world acclaim and in the preservation of our historic landmarks.

That Carmel shall not, now or in the future, ever be termed a 'tourist trap' but shall continue a Mecca for individuals and families seeking graceful living, is the aim of the Carmel Citizens Committee.

Symphony Guild Tea Attended by 100 Guests

Mrs. Frank E. Ringland, president of the Monterey County Symphony Guild, greeted a surprise honor guest at the Guild's preview tea held last Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Edwin H. J. Carns, wife of the commanding general of Fort Ord, brought her house guest, Mrs. Barksdale Hamlett.

Mrs. Hamlett is in Carmel with her husband, General Barksdale Hamlett, vice chief of staff, U.S. Army, who is visiting Fort Ord on a tour of inspection.

More than 100 guests, Guild members, attended the tea to hear a program by pianist Wade Parks and the commentary on next week's Symphony program, given by Conductor John Gosling.

Mrs. George Fletcher, hospitality chairman, was assisted by tea chairmen Mrs. Ramona Gahl and Mrs. James Moore. Pouring were, Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mrs. Richard Osborne, Mrs. McCormac Bunting, Alexander Mackintosh and Mrs. Wade Parks. The spectacular floral centerpieces on the tea tables were created by Mrs. Mary Judith King.

Chairman Robert Strum and member Dick Hittinger of the Forestry Commission warn Carmel citizens. "Please do not fertilize our native trees. The chemicals in today's fertilizers burn and eventually kill our native oaks and pines. If you feel that trees on your property need 'nourishment' try water, consult an expert, but don't use fertilizer."

So, I had this operation, and I'm lying here in bed where I'm under observation while I crawl back from the dead. Supposedly I rest in quiet with lots of loving care, but it sounds like there's a riot as the drums and trumpets blare.

Click, click, the nurses' heels go clacking down the hall, regardless how the patient feels or where the echos fall—the infantry has landed, the cannonading starts, at five A.M. you're handed the slush from breakfast carts.

A hospital is just a club where doctors sharpen knives, and nurses congregate to rub and regulate our lives. Your ego is deleted, you're number thirty-four; you know you're being treated but you never know what for.

So, comes the day they let me go. I've got my future planned—I'll find a three-ring circus with a hundred-trumpet band; and there I'll rest in peace again where all is calm and still, and not get woke at three A.M. to take a sleeping pill.

The renowned mezzo-soprano, Nan Merriman, who will appear in concert with the Monterey County Symphony, is pictured above in costume for one of her most famous roles, Dora-bella in "Cosi fan tutte." Miss Merriman who is equally at home on the opera or concert stage will be heard locally in a performance of Maher's "Songs of the Wayfarer." John Gosling will direct the performance. Other works to be heard are Paul Creston's "Pre-Classical Suite" and Beethoven's Symphony No. 7. Tickets for the performance, which will take place in Sunset Auditorium at 8:30 p.m., are at a premium and season ticket holders who may be unable to attend are urgently requested to turn in their tickets for resale.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of
The Carmel Pine Cone

In recent months I have visited the Harrison Library in Carmel to read and study in the quiet atmosphere. To my astonishment I have found people of all races and ages, seriously trying to improve their education. Many times during my visits no seats were available so it goes to show in my small observation that we the people are alive and ready to accept the advantages the library offers.

Fewer Boat Fatalities

Lachlan Richards, Chief of the Division of Small Craft Harbors, announced today that he was pleased that, although accidents reported in the year 1963 reflect an increase of 91 accidents over the previous year, there were 8 less fatalities during this period. He commented that this was especially significant inasmuch as studies indicate that in the last few years there has been an increase of approximately 17 percent per year in number of boats in the State of California.

Richards said his figures show that 81 persons lost their lives and 214 were injured in 492 boating accidents in 1963; and that most fatalities occurred on tidal waters, with 26 deaths on ocean waters, 30 on bays and rivers, and 25 in lakes, reservoirs and streams.

Sunset Reports Out Tomorrow

Tomorrow marks the end of the first semester of this school year. Report cards of students' progress will be issued to the children of Sunset School this Friday. We would like to remind parents that the children in Sunset's grouping situation are graded according to the way they progress in the group—for math and reading.

Automatic dryers save a heap of work.

A dryer can save you from lugging about two tons of wet wash a year. Or to put it another way, it can save you from pinning (and unpinning) about 10,000 clothespins.

With a dryer you can dry the family wash day or night. In any weather.

And there are settings for any fabric—assuring a better job.

Your laundry comes out soft and fluffy. Not wind-whipped and tangled. New damp dry settings make clothes come out just right for ironing, too. No sprinkling. No rolling. In fact, some things come out so wrinkle-free, they need no ironing at all.

With all the advantages of a dryer it's no wonder so many women have stopped hanging their wash on a clothesline.

The SUR COAST

By Elizabeth Fuller Jones

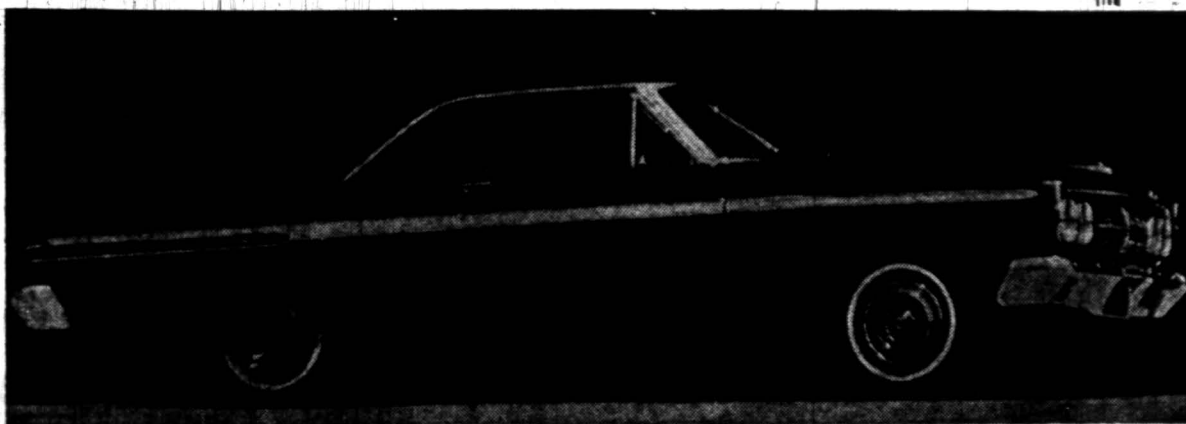

The Coast Gallery, Big Sur is open as usual (daily, except Mondays) despite the fact that there was extensive damage to the gallery's grounds, garage and an adjoining apartment during the recent storm. Fortunately none of the works of art of the more than half a hundred Big Sur artists that exhibit at the gallery was damaged. The gallery, housed on an upper floor, was not affected by the violent storm that hit the area and presently there is an exhibit of the paintings of Sur Country artist Roland Hall. The many thousands of dollars worth of damage inflicted upon this lovely landmark on the south coast, was caused by the exceedingly heavy rains, that sent a great mass of mud, logs, and debris down Lafler Creek that flows abruptly down the mountain and then levels off around the gallery area. A large redwood log became lodged in the culvert under Highway One, and backed the flood waters over the gallery property and the highway. The loss in valuable books, photographic equipment and many prized personal collections is great and replacement, for the most part, impossible. Distressing as the present scene is with land-moving and land-grading equipment working to re-shape the denuded area, Mrs. LaVerne Allen, curator and owner of the Coast Gallery, is already planning how she will again build the gardens surrounding charming rustic gallery buildings into an area of beauty and order.

A special event coming to the Coast Gallery, tomorrow at 8:30 will be a talk, complete with slides on the "Art of Formosa," presented by Mr. Richard Petterson, Art Director of Scripps College, Pomona. For three years Mr. and Mrs. Petterson worked as representatives of the United States Government in the field of art on the Island of Formosa. The lecture is free and the public is invited to attend.

The Thirteenth Annual Potluck Revue, the unique variety show presented each spring with a cast of exclusively Big Sur talent, began rehearsals last week at the Big Sur Grange Hall. As in former years the Revue will be under the musical and art direction of Gene Perrine and Bob Skiles and will represent the creative and cooperative effort of the members of the Big Sur Grange and residents of the Big Sur area. "How the West Was Really Won" is to be the general theme of the show, but as in previous annual performances, the cast, the specialty acts, the many details of the revue are not published in advance, thus the variety numbers come as a complete surprise to the audience.

This year there will be four performances, Thursday through Sunday evening, March 19, 20, 21 and 22, at 8:30 in the Big Sur Grange Hall. Tickets are $1.50 and $2.00 each and may be secured from Mrs. Marty Hartman, Telephone Big Sur 2525, between the hours of 10:00 and 5:00 daily, or obtained by writing to Mrs. Hartman, c/o Ripplewood Lodge, Big Sur. (Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of tickets). Tickets will go on sale February 15.

LAW IN ACTION

POTLUCK DINNERS

Are potluck dinners legal? In 1961 the law covering "restaurants" was amended, raising doubt as to these dinners' legality and thus the old standby money raiser for clubs and churches.

The law was then clarified in 1962. (Health & Safety Code section 28522) Churches, clubs and societies can serve food if it is:

1. Without charge to members or sold at a reasonable charge to members.

2. Or, sold to the general public at "occasional fund raising events."

The law specifically says that the club or society cannot serve or sell food as a primary purpose or function of the club. Nor can the group have a full time employee or member assigned to the job of preparing dinners. This shows that the club or church is running a restaurant.

The Restaurant Act applies to "eating establishments." So an occasional cake sale by a non-profit club or church is not an eating place.

Much depends on what the concern's main job is. Church groups and clubs serve food only as an incidental part of their social work. They have no full time staff. Or food servers. But some clubs do have dinners regularly with a staff to prepare and serve the food. If so, they must meet all public health rules.

The act is broad:

The California law specifically lists clubs and organizations, boarding and guest houses, school cafeterias, catering services, and living groups that regularly sell or give food to guests, patrons, or the public, as "restaurants."

The health rules aim to make sure that food is well prepared in sanitary kitchens. Equipment and workers must meet certain standards.

Potluck and cake sales often meet these standards, and the law would have to restrict their use. Most clubs and church groups do not pay tax on their social functions, often having a tax exemption for all income.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Krentz and Mrs. Sally Hull Pierce consult with Mr. William Hubbard, manager of Del Monte Lodge about final arrangements for the Feb. 4 fashion show and tea to be sponsored there by members of the Monterey Committee of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. Mrs. Krentz is hostess chairman and Mrs. Pierce is fashion show director of the event which will take place at 2:30 p.m.

Sassoon Elected to Top Rotary Office

Steve Sassoon was elected president of the Carmel Rotary Club at their luncheon meeting yesterday. He succeeds Dick Catlin, who will become a member of the club's board of directors after installation is held this summer.

Others elected at the meeting were Tom Craig, treasurer, Ed Neroda and Clayton Neill Jr., directors. Tom Perry was re-elected secretary of the club. Neroda and Neill will replace Warren Edwards and Tom Tonkin on the board.

Speaker for the meeting was V. H. Moore, executive director of Monterey Country Industrial Development. He outlined the scope and limits of the operation of the organization. Since the group was organized in 1951, he said, there have been 22 plants established in Monterey County with the aid of MCID. Moore stressed that MCID, his organization, was most anxious to preserve the scenic beauty of the county.

David Walton, owner of the Sancho Panza Coffee House in Monterey, will speak to the club next week. Title of his talk is "A guide to public assistance."

DR. CHARLES GAUPP

Antiques Expert to Speak at Woman's Club

"Confessions of an Antique Dealer" should be an intriguing subject to most of us, but here on the Monterey Peninsula where antiques play such a large and important role in the lives of Carmelites, this should be a lure to the members of Carmel Woman's Club on Monday, at 2 p.m. in their clubhouse at 9th and San Carlos Sts., said Dr. Charles Guapp.

Dr. Guapp who operates The House of the Clipper Ship in Denver, Colo., will present a program combining his long experience as a speaker-performer, with his background in the world of antiques.

For over a third of a century and two generations, the House of the Clipper Ship has been one of the top-flight antique shops in U.S., first at North Pembroke, Mass., then at West Dennis, Mass., before moving to Denver.

Dr. and Mrs. Guapp specialize in authentic American and British items of the 18th and 19th centuries, both furniture and accessories. In personally selecting the stock in New England and Old England, they contend that the mixture of antique and contemporary is, after all, following the fashion of the old Salem Houses.

Refreshments will be served after the program by the following: Hostesses: Mrs. Max Forstl, Mrs. Wm. E. Robinson and Miss Elsie E. Crowley. Those who will pour are Mrs. Jas. Dixon, Mrs. Ethel Guillard, Mrs. James E. Staveley and Mrs. Harry J. Templeton.

Opening Tomorrow Night At the Studio

John Patrick's comedy hit "Everybody Loves Opal" which opens tomorrow night at Carmel's Studio Theater and Restaurant brings with it a fresh and comic group of characters to the local theater's stage.

The cast, under the direction of Charles Thomas, is headed by Babs Richardson in the title role of Opal.

Opal's three "house guests" who create the comic and prankish events in her life will be played by Nick LeFeuvre, Jr., Janet Fluehr, and Ray Cadena in the roles of Bradford, Gloria and Solomon. Vern Peckover rounds out the cast in the role of Officer Yankee. LeFeuvre and Peckover were last

Vera Stewart on Mexican Holiday

Making her fourth trip to Mexico, Mrs. Vera Stewart, curator of the First Theater of Monterey, will take her granddaughter, Bonnie Lee Stewart, along when she leaves by air for Mexico City tomorrow.

Bonnie's parents, the Richard Stewarts, are in Thailand, where, Vera tells us, Richard, as resident vice president of Union Oil Company, is acting as engineering expert for a vast territory.

Richard writes his mother and daughter that the International Compound, where they live, is known as the Stewart Clan headquarters, as the other two American families there are, by strange coincidence, named Stewart!

With the Richard Stewarts are their two younger children, Linda and Neil, both honor students in the International School. Bonnie was left in Pacific Grove with her grandmother so that she might complete her schooling at Sacramento College. The Mexican tour was planned to coincide with Bonnie's mid-year vacation.

Dr. R. Van Allen Addresses P.T.A. Groups

The P-TA of River, Sunset, and Woods Schools, had a meeting yesterday in the Sunset School auditorium. The special speaker at the meeting was Dr. R. Van Allen, an expert on the subject of the teaching of reading. Dr. Van Allen said that children develop reading concepts in the following sequence:

1. "What a child thinks about he can talk about.
2. What he can talk about can be expressed in painting, writing, or some other form.
3. Anything he writes can be read.
4. He can read what he writes and what other people write."

His talk will deal with these concepts and others, taking issue with the way reading is taught in the majority of classrooms today.

FINE NEEDLES . . .

● Three ladies, representing three generations of Carmel: Mrs. Henry (Mona) Williams, her daughter Karen Bryant and Karen's daughter, Jessica, traveled to San Francisco at the invitation of four gentlemen, representing three generations, for a week-end house party. The hosts were Martin Flavin, his son Sean and Sean's Christopher and Colin. Also on the guest list was Martin's daughter, Flavia. The occasion was the housewarming of Martin's and Sean's new home in the city.

On Saturday evening, the adults in the party attended the San Francisco ballet.

seen in "Pools Paradise" at The Studio. Janet Fluehr and Ray Cadena are both appearing for the first time on The Studio stage.

The production's scenic design is being created by Nick LeFeuvre Jr.

"Everybody Loves Opal" will play Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at 8:30. The Studio will also serve dinner on these evenings from 6:30 to 7:30.

Traveling Toward East Coast Sunshine

Mrs. Arnold Bradley of Carmel Valley and her son, Bill, left Pebble Beach this week for Camden, South Carolina, where Bill has been accepted as a member of the United States Equestrian 3-Day squad to train for the Olympic Games in Tokyo. They were trailing Bill's horse, "Ohi."

Wolff-Becker Wedding Date Is Valentine's Day

Miss Dorothy Wolff of Carmel will be the honor guest at a "bridal Frills" shower tomorrow evening given for her by Mrs. Helen Walker of Pacific Grove; Mrs. Elsie Jones and Mrs. Eleanor Avila, fellow teachers at the Del Monte School.

Dorothy's marriage to Paul Hermann Karl Heinz Peter Becker of Hollister will take place in the Church of the Wayfarer on Feb. 14 with the reception following, given in honor of the young couple by Mrs. W. E. Van Loben Sels, in the Van Loben Sels home on Carmelo street.

Miss Wolff, the daughter of Lt. Francis Ryan Wolff, U.S.N. (Ret.) and Mrs. Wolff, was born in southern California. She attended U.C.L.A. Upon her graduation, with teaching in elementary schools her career ambition, Miss Wolff taught for two years in the Fort Ord School. Following a year's travel in Japan, she returned to Monterey Peninsula to teach in the Del Monte School, 1959 to '61. Then came a year of traveling in Europe. She returned to the Del Monte School in the autumn of '62 where she is at present, teaching third grade.

Dorothy's prospective groom,

Peter Becker, was born in Germany, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herman Becker. He came to the United States some ten years ago and is presently acting as manager of the Amaden Vineyards at Hollister.

"A really wonderful honeymoon is planned," Dorothy tells, "but it won't take place until June because that is the first minute Peter and I can go to East Germany and bring Peter's parents home with us. Mr. and Mrs. Becker will have passed their 70th birthdays by the time they will be allowed to come through the Iron Curtain to complete freedom. How wonderful it will be to bring them to our wonderful California."

Church Meeting Place Changed Due to Parking

Inadequate parking facilities at the Hacienda Carmel makes necessary a change in meeting place for the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula.

Starting next Sunday, worship services of the new church will be held at the Nix Studio, Mission & Eighth Streets, Carmel. At 10:30 a.m. Dr. Ronald J. Menmuir will deliver the sermon and special music will be under the direction of John Farr.

A fellowship period will follow services with the Ikthys, youth fellowship group of the church, as hosts.

Jehovah's Witnesses to Convene Feb. 14-16

Watchtower officials have chosen King City as the site for the next Circuit Assembly of the 18 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in California Circuit No. 11, it was announced by Francis Goetz, presiding minister of the local congregation. Salvatore Pavone, of Santa Clara, will be in charge of convention arrangements.

King City Witnesses will be hosts to 1500 delegates who will meet at the King City Fairgrounds Exposition Building, February 14-16. Congregations from Arroyo Grande in the south to Campbell in the north will be represented. Many conventioners will be housed at local motels, hotels, and homes obtained in a house-to-house canvass.

The last Witness Convention in King City July 21-23, 1961, when 2000 ministers attended from an area extending north to San Jose. Jehovah's Witnesses now have a preaching fellowship world wide of over 1,000,000.

According to Mr. Goetz, the theme of the entire three days will be "Feed My Sheep." Sessions will begin Friday at 6:45 p.m. and end Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Each day's program will include Bible talks, demonstrations and discussions designed to augment the ministerial training received by the ministers at their home Kingdom Halls.

A mass baptism of new ministers will be held at a local pool on Saturday.

The public Bible lecture, "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World," delivered at 3 p.m. on Sunday by A. L. Borchardt, District Supervisor from New York and principal convention speaker, will climax the three-day gathering.

All sessions are open to the public and no collections are taken.

Santa Claus Girls Leader Succumbs

Mrs. Ralph E. (Adriana Van Doorn) Marrin, founder of the Santa Claus Girls, a resident of Carmel for the past five years, died on New Year's Day in a nursing home in Grand Rapids, Mich., at the age of 79 years.

Mrs. Marrin suffered a stroke in her Carmel home early in December. R. resident of Carmel for seven years, Mrs. Marrin was active in the Carmel Woman's Club and a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

She was a young girl when she approached the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, then editor of the former Grand Rapids Herald, in 1908, with the idea of providing for needy children at Christmas time. It was that year that the Santa Claus Girls first organized. This Christmas the Santa Claus Girls held their 56th anniversary.

Mrs. Marrin moved to the west coast in 1910 and served with the Red Cross in San Francisco and Reno for more than 30 years. She received a B.A. degree for the Univ. of Washington in 1930.

Survivors include a brother, Edward, of Phoenix and a cousin, Adrian V. Telder of Grand Rapids.

Christian Science services were held in Grand Rapids.

The United States now produces some 1.5 billion pounds of cheese yearly, far more than other countries famous for their cheeses.

PADRE PATTER by Mary Hurn

Last week was "dead week" at Carmel High School. The reason—this week is finals week. School authorities believed the students needed to spend their time reviewing for semester exams. Activities should pick up right away next week.

Last Saturday, about twenty-five students went to Mountain View to attend student body elections at Mountain View High School. The field trip was organized by Steve Arnon, student body president of C.H.S. and sponsored by Mr. Lyon, one of our civics teachers.

Mountain View has a very interesting system of student government and elections. Each student is encouraged to actively participate in the elections which are held on a Saturday. The elections are patterned after our national elections, with nominating conventions determining the nominees for each office. Campaign speeches and platforms are presented by the candidates. The purpose is to give the students a better understanding of our national political system and better prepare him to become a useful citizen.

Steve felt Carmel High School students could learn how other high schools operate. Also, some of the Mountain View policies might be incorporated into our own constitution.

There was an interesting sideline to this field trip—the group had lunch on the Stanford campus and visited an art exhibition there.

The Science Club formally ratified its new Constitution last week. The Constitution and By-Laws were drafted by Nancy Chapman. The club, which was organized this year, now has twenty members. Ray Rhodes was recently appointed chairman in charge of maintaining a display window outside of the chemistry lab.

Outstanding Artists

Scheduled at Montalvo

A free public recital by talented Pauline Wood, young lyric soprano of Berkeley, will be presented in the Carriage House Theatre at Villa Montalvo, near Saratoga, on Sunday, Feb. 9, at 3 p.m.

Under auspices of the Montalvo Music Committee, Miss Wood is one of four winners in the 1964 auditions, in which 21 young musicians competed, and will be the first to perform in specially arranged programs for the successful young artists. Her program and those of the other winners are presented on selected Sunday dates during the year in conjunction with the various month-long art gallery exhibits at the well known cultural center. These shows are also without charge and may be seen daily except Monday, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Miss Wood's recital will include operatic arias, French, German and Italian songs, plus an English group, extending over a 45-minute period. A graduate of Mills College, where she appeared in concerts and majored in education, she also attended the University of California and was among the 12 winners in the Talent Contest there. Her public appearances are numerous.

Now in rehearsals for La Boheme for the East Bay Opera League, Miss Wood will also sing a benefit scholarship for Montclair Jr. Women's Club in March. She also performed at the Claremont Hotel in the Hansel & Gretel production, appeared in "The Mikado" with the Oakland Civic Light Opera company, and others, including concerts sponsored by the San Francisco Music Club. She is currently studying with Bernard Ferguson.

Other winners in the Montalvo auditions were Paul Mihaly, 18-year-old pianist of Santa Rosa, and student of Adolph Baller; Michael Chang, tenor, of San Francisco; and alternate winner was Marilyanne Grant, coloratura soprano, also of San Francisco.

An evening of "fun and philosophy from America's poet of the people" is predicted when a gift performance of "The World of Carl Sandburg" is presented in Carriage House Theatre Saturday, evening at 8:30.

It will be a repeat performance of the production, done in reader's theatre style by San Jose State College drama department recently, when each show of a two-night stand played to standing-room-only audiences.

Again to be directed by Noreen LaBarge Mitchel, associated professor of drama at SJS, the cast will be the same, headed by Russell Holcomb, Lee Ruggles, Luis Valdez and Bill Keeler. Miss Ruggles plays the starring role of Bette Davis in the New York production a few years ago. All players are senior or graduate majors in drama, English and music, including the seven others in lesser roles.

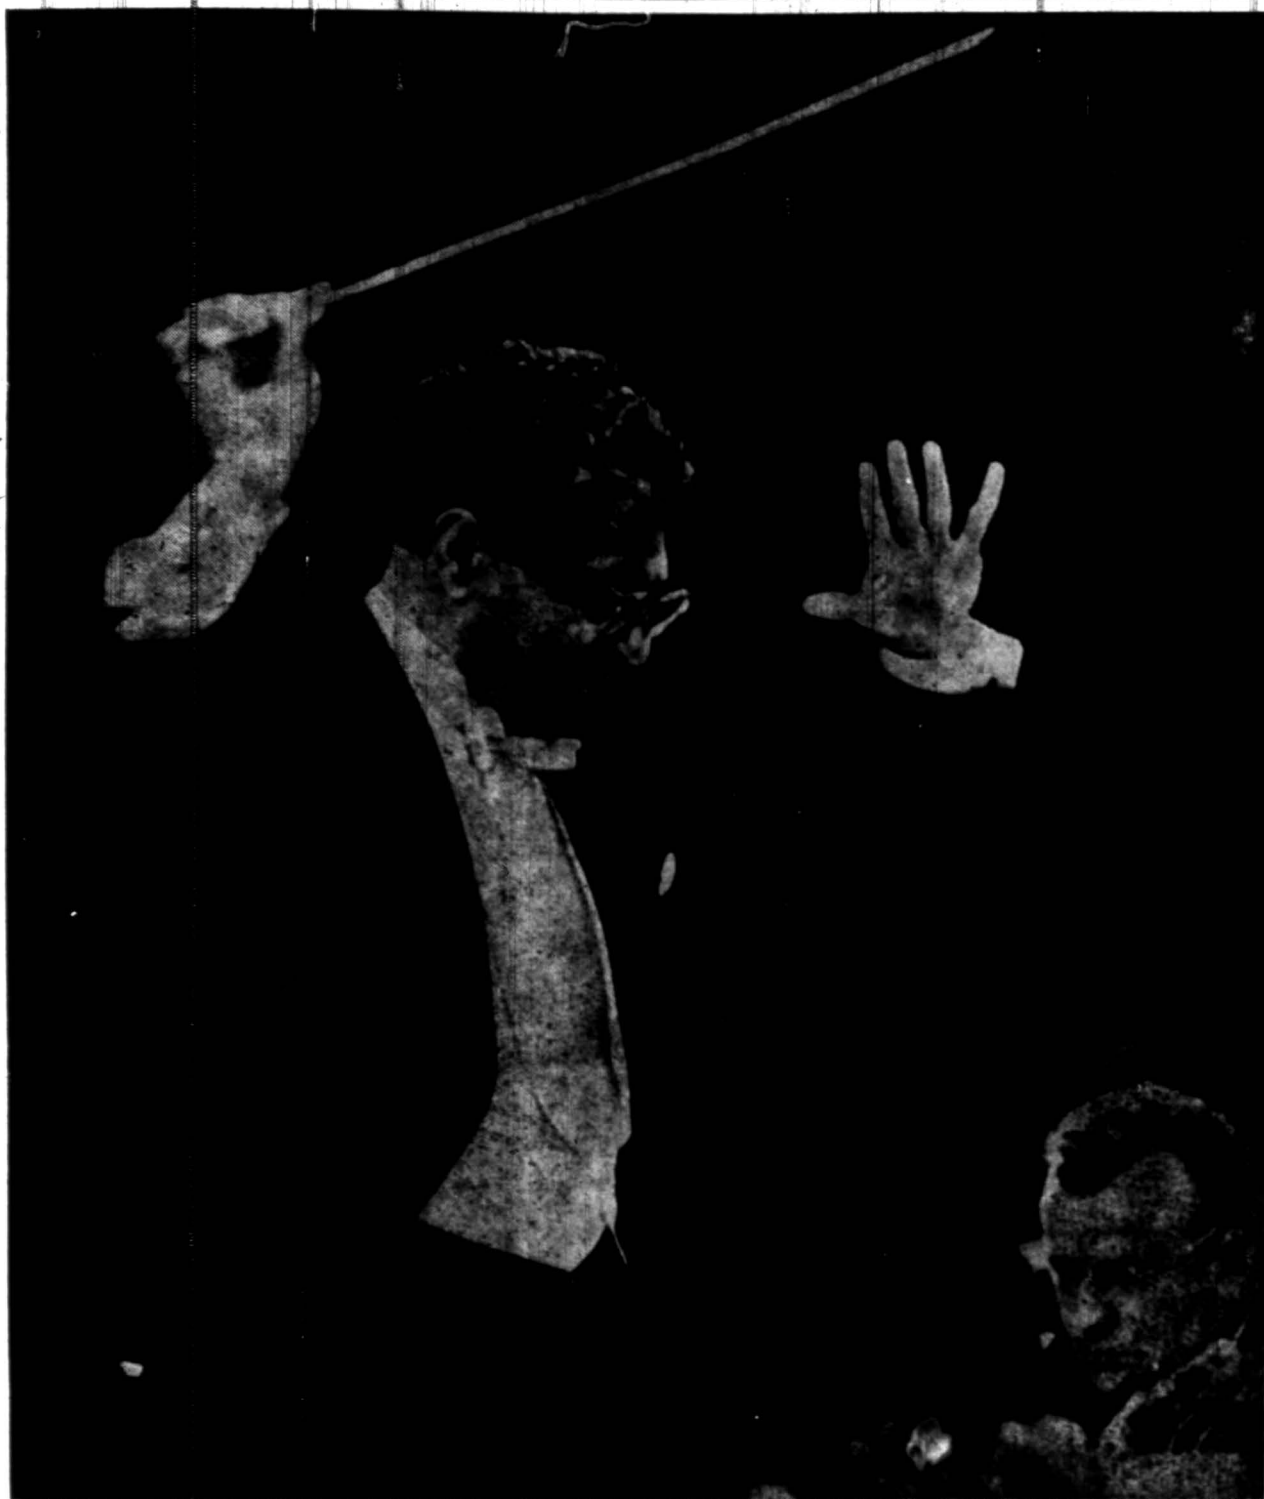

Proceeds from the play will be donated by the SJS department and participants to Montalvo Assn. for its cultural programs.

Presented under auspices of Villa Montalvo's drama committee, co-chairmen Lilian Fontaine and Claire Loftus urge advance ticket orders to assure admission, due to the maximum audience capacity of Carriage House Theatre at 300. While specific places are not reserved, those who order in advance by mail or phone will be assured seats, it was explained. Otherwise a first-come policy must be followed.

Mail should be addressed to Drama Committee, Villa Montalvo, Box 158, Saratoga. Phone calls should be directed to Mrs. Samuel Day, 354-4005; or Mrs. Paul Beaudry, 379-4326. Tickets are $2.00 each.

and bears the summer's burning torch with philosophic calm success...
Its branches spread with quiet zest
(insatiable each leaf):
fresh growth from every subtle pain,
new stature gained through autumn grief.

RICHARD CAYTON

MEASURE OF WONDER

Were ever dandelions so small
Or rocks too high
To jump across... or clamber up
And touch the sky?

Was ever air so bright to sniff?
Was ever day
So shined with sun, so many pathed?
Leap down! Away!

Leap silver sreek. Bend silver grass.
Small dog, small boy,
Bound one to one with length of leash
Held taut with joy.

GERTRUDE MAY LUTZ
Palo Alto, California.

THE CUP OF LIFE

I know I shall be claimed by death
When my cup of life is full to the brim,
Spending out my ultimate breath
Before it overflows its rim.
Shall I swiftly pour out large amounts,
Is a question to which I seek reply,
In joyous geysers, spurts and founts,
Filling it up with the sun still high?
Or should I, rather, nurse it along,
Trickle by trickle and spoon by spoon,
Like an interminable, drawn-out song,
Lasting till night drowns afternoon,
Although I ever seek to win
A guiding hint from Wisdom's voice,
I know some tendency within
Will have its way, leaving me no choice.

LORI PETRI
Novato, California.

WINTER

From out of the North
Came the windy word
That Winter was coming
Without any doubt.
The flowers are scythed
With a frosty sword,
And the leaves whirl down
In a motley rout.
There is rain on the plain
And snow on the mount —
Winter is driving
And cracking his whip.
The birds huddle tight
Each feather to count,
And the corn shivers, creaking
From earth edge to tip.

Pine Grove Invites All to a Housewarming

Young man with vision, rare executive ability and tireless energy, Leslie B. Nelson, the owner-developer of the Pine Grove apartments on Grove Acres avenue in Pacific Grove is already a veteran in the creation of apartment complexes suited to modern living.

A southern Californian, he turned his eyes toward Oakland and the east bay area. In rapid succession he acquired sites in Oakland, Alameda and Castro Valley. Nelson's apartment projects are designed to attract business men and women and small families in all age groups. Compact with a feeling of spaciousness, colorful and the ultimate in modernity.

Above and beyond his responsibility as owner and developer Mr. Nelson's personal interest in properties is part of his success secret. Mrs. Leta Martin as his general aide. Mrs. Martin is the one who greets all prospective dwellers. Further, Mrs. Martin interviews, selects and trains all resident managers. "They are all women," she tells. "As the managers are the ones responsible for the upkeep, the general conduct, the morale and atmosphere of the apartments, my judgment has to cover many angles of personality."

"In the 100 Pine Grove Apartments we will have two managers:

Leslie B. Nelson, Owner-Developer of Pine Grove

one will be responsible for permanent tenants; the other will handle the 50 transient furnished apartments. We are proud of the adaptability of Grove Acres to the traveling as well as the permanent individuals and families of Monterey Peninsula."

With Mrs. Martin is newspaper and real estate expert, Mrs. Pat Ingalsbe (Mrs. Martin's daughter), in charge of public relations and responsible for the extensive newspaper, radio and T.V. program that will introduce Pine Grove to the reading and listening public.

Pat Ingalsbe showed us several of the beautiful furnished apartments, each with an individual color scheme by interior decorator

Paul Seranton. We strolled round the beautiful outdoor pool, the putting green in the making; visited the sauna baths; the recreation room; gymnasium and even the laundry rooms available to all tenants.

This Saturday afternoon will be open house at Pine Grove. Everyone is invited to view every corner and facility of the Peninsula's new development for graceful, economical and happy living.

On Oct. 2, 1958, Baroness Swansborough and Baroness Wootton became the first women to sit in the British House of Lords.

'Great Decisions' Groups Growing on Peninsula

"Great Decisions" home discussion groups are now forming in Carmel, Carmel Valley, Monterey, Pacific Grove and Salinas as a result of registration held last Saturday at Sunset School library when the Altrusa Club served coffee to those who came to inquire about this nationwide program and to register with the newly formed Discussion Center of the Monterey Peninsula. Sunday afternoon and weekday evening meetings are scheduled.

The fact sheet kits prepared by the Foreign Policy Association to implement the discussions are now available at the office of the Pine Cone, at the Thunderbird Bookshop in Carmel Valley, and at the Footlights and Fancy shops in Carmel and Monterey.

Registration of individuals desiring to join discussion groups can now be made through the Discussion Center, of which Mrs. David Stevens was elected chairman last week, Edwin L. McCurry treasurer, and Mrs. R. H. Towner secretary. The national program begins the week of February 9 and continues for eight weeks, after which ballots registering individual opinions and suggestions will be forwarded to legislators in Sacramento and Washington and to the State Department direct from the local Discussion Center. Registration may be made by telephone to Mrs. Towner at 624-4810 or by mail to Route 2, Box 18, Carmel.

Carmel Foundation Programs Announced

Mrs. Heldegard Ferrera, who has traveled deep into South American jungles, will show colored slides of a trip she took with her husband into Dutch Guiana to the Kaieteur Falls, and into the villages of the Saranaka Tribe, where few penetrate. The program will be presented at The Carmel Foundation Town House next Wed. afternoon at 3 o'clock. All interested are invited to the program and to the tea which follows.

The monthly luncheon will be on Monday, Feb. 10 at noon to be followed by a program presented by Mr. Peter Kutschera. He will show colored slides of Europe.

Mothers March for Dimes Next Tuesday

March of Dimes Mothers March will take place next Tuesday. While the solicitation time has been set for 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., marchers in Carmel may make their calls during the daylight hours on that day.

Proceeds from the Mothers March will be used for research into birth defects. One out of every 16 births is defective. There is a defective birth every other minute. In Orange County in 1961 there were 300 deaths due to birth defects. If the cause had been polio, think of the panic!

The Carmel area will be covered by marchers working in their voting precinct area. The following Area Captains are responsible for obtaining marchers: Mesdames Virginia Rose, Fred Keeble, Carl Patnude, Nancy Dehnert, Pete Tersol, Eugene Pollioni, Don Brown, Jack Martin, James G. Bannerman, Antone Hrusa, Robert Goulding, Fred Strong, Laszlo Toldi, James Pruitt, Howard Stephens, Herbert McClean, Lloyd Cunningham, Audrey Brosche, William Vander Sluis, Clem Ale, Thomas White and Miss Ruth Amell.

Any woman wishing to volunteer to be a marcher call anyone of these persons or the Community Chairman for the Mothers March, Mrs. August H. Johnson.

Palo Colorado Students Visit N.P.G.S.

The faculty, Mrs. Nancy Bottero, and the students (18), grades 1-6 of the one room Palo Colorado School, located eleven miles south of Carmel, visited the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California on last Thursday.

It was a working holiday as the students took notes about the sights they witnessed. These included a Foucault pendulum, Van de Graaff accelerator, anechoic chamber, computer facility, steam engineering plant from a destroyer, antarctic art exhibit and aeronautical engineering display.

Rear Admiral Charles K. Berghin, U.S. Navy, Superintendent of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School met the students and talked to them about the value of education. He also introduced them to WAVE Lt. Charlotte Safford so that the students would know that both men and women were serving in the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Bunn left their home in Pebble Beach this week for Miami, the Caribbean, and returning in about three weeks via Mexico.

ABOUT FIRE PROTECTION, HEATING SYSTEMS, Etc.

You think it's been cold here the last few days? In a little town in Idaho near this broker's hometown it was six below zero this week and there was a big fire in a potato (of course) warehouse. Firemen rolled up, found their pump frozen solid. "Forward!" shouted the chief, drove the truck into the burning building, backed out a few moments later with pump thawed out, and promptly extinguished the blaze. Fortunately, we don't have quite such a problem with the temperature around here, but there are people who tell us they would love to live on the ocean South of Carmel, but are afraid it would be too chilly some of the year. These same people are usually worried about fire protection. Well, we've good news today: we have a quality home with spinning wheel charm and an ultra modern heat-pump system, just across the street from the sea on Spindrift Road. And this location means fire protection from one of the finest districts in California. It also means only four minutes to Carmel, all city deliveries, mail at your doorstep, more conveniences in the beautifully planned house than you could dream up or duplicate in town at the price of $89,500. And all this on a wooded lot with lovely landscaped outdoor living areas and, of course, the incomparable Pacific Ocean from every window. Please, may we show you how you can be warm and well protected on the South Coast?

Weston Production

Opens Tomorrow Night

Produced and directed by Cole Weston, Arch Oboler's prophetic play "Night of the Auk" will open tomorrow night at the Monterey Opera House.

Utterly new in the theatre, exciting, controversial and prophetic the play might seem utterly incredible to a few theater goers of today. Actually "Night of the Auk" could become headlines in any newspaper right now.

The story is of five survivors of the first successful landing on the moon who, on their way back to earth, find that nuclear warfare is taking place. Due to today's world condition, everyone should see and give thought to "The Night of the Auk." Mr. Weston has chosen a talented cast for his unique production. Five men tell the story—Walt, Falconer, Ed Ledger, Paul Holden, Ron Martin and Milton Trexler.

Sets are designed by Marlinde von Ruhs; the stage manager is Chuck Acuff and sound is under the direction of John Pate. Acknowledgement is made to the U.S. Naval Air Facility for invaluable aid and advice.

"Night of the Auk" will run for five successive week-ends, Friday and Saturday nights. Tickets may be secured at the Central Box Office, Carmel.

More than 100 shipping lines regularly pass through the Golden Gate.

Campsite Denied in Palo Colorado

By Elizabeth Jones

A proposed 100-space public campground in Palo Colorado Canyon was denied Tuesday by the Monterey County Planning Commission.

The campground was requested by Jess Draper, a long-time timber and forest products operator in the area. It was proposed that the 10-acre tract would have 100 campsites, each with a rustic appearance and separated from the next space by redwood. Each space would have a redwood table and stool and restrooms and showers would have rustic exteriors.

A large number of residents of Palo Colorado Canyon appeared at the hearing to protest the plan. It was pointed out that the narrow road is used for pedestrian as well as vehicular traffic and would also be a hazard in case of another fire in the canyon. Another consideration was that water supplies might be contaminated by the concentration of sanitary facilities upstream for the proposed camping area.

Draper has ten days in which to appeal the decision to the county Board of Supervisors.
